

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Agriculture is the number one industry in South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Agriculture has helped, and will continue to help, make our nation a land of plenty; and,

WHEREAS, The need for high quality agricultural products will be even greater during the 90s to provide for a growing population, both here and abroad; and,

WHEREAS, Many of those we count on to supply those needs will be seriously and even fatally injured in farm accidents or disabled by work related illness; and,

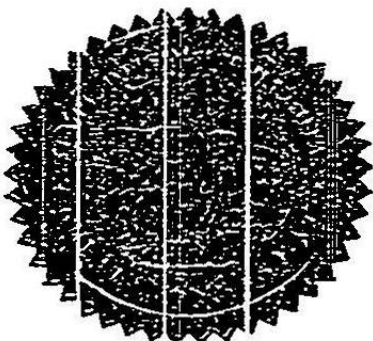

WHEREAS, Farm and ranch families suffer so much emotionally and financially from farm related accidents and illnesses; and,

WHEREAS, The farm and ranch families in South Dakota have a need for training and education in farm safety; and,

WHEREAS, President George Bush has issued a proclamation proclaiming September 16-22 as National Farm Safety Week; and,

NOW, THEREFORE, I GEORGE S. HICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, urge all farm and ranch families to take an extra measure of precaution in their operations to ensure the safety of themselves and others that might be a part of that operation. I call upon all South Dakotans to "Cut Farm Safety Risks in the 90s and to participate in appropriate activities in observance of Farm Safety Week in South Dakota, and proclaim September 16-22, 1990 as

FARM SAFETY WEEK IN SOUTH DAKOTA

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eleventh Day of July, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

GEORGE S. HICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTIME, SECRETARY OF STATE